

PILOT HAS NARROW ESCAPE. When plane crashed at North Island Station, California, it caught fire. The accident occurred during flight practice.

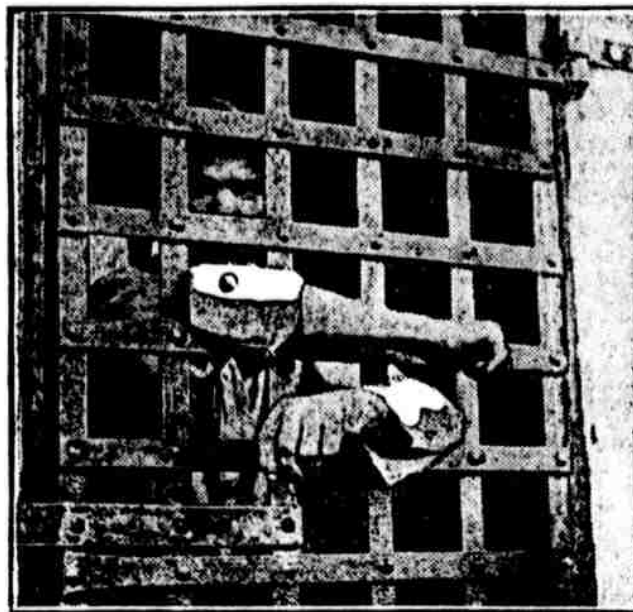

OH, FOR THE LIFE OF A BEACH GUARD! They have a lot of fun despite the seriousness of their duty in protecting the bathing public in Atlantic City. Steven Damico (left) and Herbert Cooney are pushing No. 23 into the water. Laverette Raymond, a student who has seen three years' service at Atlantic City, is talking with Helen Asay and Hazel Worthington, of Bordentown, N. J., and Dorothy Ernest, of Philadelphia.

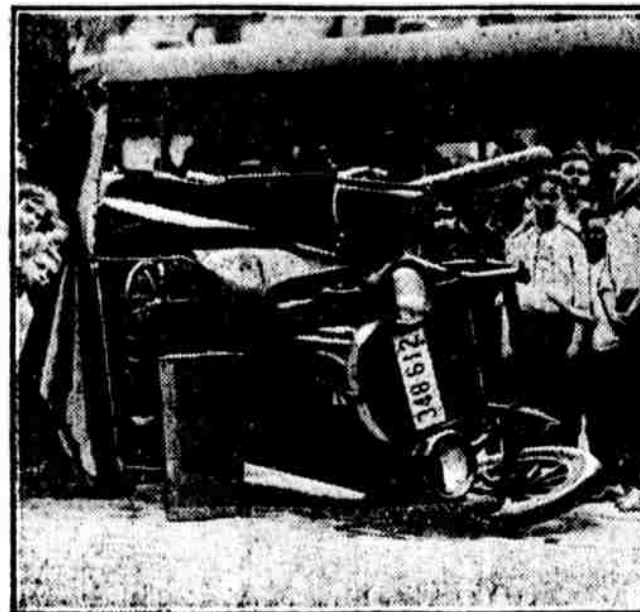

AND THE SWING WENT A LITTLE BIT HIGHER. Albino Eresiewicz went up in the air on the playground at Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets.

THE STRIKE IN ILLINOIS. A machine gun company is in the yards of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, at Bloomington. The roundhouse and shop buildings are in the background.

STRIKER ARRESTED. William Hawley, in a cell at Slater, Mo. The arrest was made by U. S. marshals when Hawley crossed the "dead line."

AN EIGHTH STREET CAR gave a terrific broadside to automobile at Thompson street. Auto's owner is Joseph Fawcett, of Scranton, Pa.

THOUSANDS MADE THEIR WAY TO THE SCENE of the Parkway Building crash, yesterday, and watched the workmen. The camera caught a group as they watched from the west side of Broad street above Arch.

CAPT. JOHN T. THOMPSON, chief of Bureau of Engineering, U. S. Navy.

Miss Frances M. Reilly, athlete and fiancee.

Walter Whalen, a Philadelphian, has been chosen to represent this city in the Irish Olympics. Miss Reilly lives in Bala.

"WE USED TO BE THIN, BUT LOOK AT US NOW!" That's what the photographer heard as he took these photographs at the East Falls public bathhouse. The East Falls women swimmers insist that swimming doesn't help them to reduce. Left to right, Mrs. Emily Newton, Mrs. Anna Lutz, Mrs. Elizabeth Morley, Mrs. Louise Ransford and Mrs. Edith Wood.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

Jean Parmentier, French representative.

French Ambassador Jusserand.

FRENCH DEBT NEGOTIATOR is received by the Secretary of the Treasury, in Washington, for the preliminary negotiations for liquidating France's $5,000,000,000 debt to the United States.

MARY ANDERSON, screen star, hoisted further toward stardom by Ethelda Bleibtrey, world's champion woman swimmer.

HAS UNIQUE DISTINCTION. Virginia Aswell Cantrill, of Washington, has two grandfathers in Congress, Aswell, of Louisiana, and Cantrill, of Kentucky.

JAMES A. STADER, Joplin, Mo., chief of mineral section of Department of Commerce.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

NORTHEAST CORNER OF SEVENTH AND WALNUT STREETS. The photograph was made in 1892 and shows several stores and dwellings on Seventh street. The Curtis Publishing Company's building now occupies the site. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. Harry Duffy, seven years old, of Cromby, near Phoenixville.

MISS PEARL THOMAS, of Toledo, who had just married Kenneth Glumm, who was shot by Evelyn Courtours. The latter committed suicide.

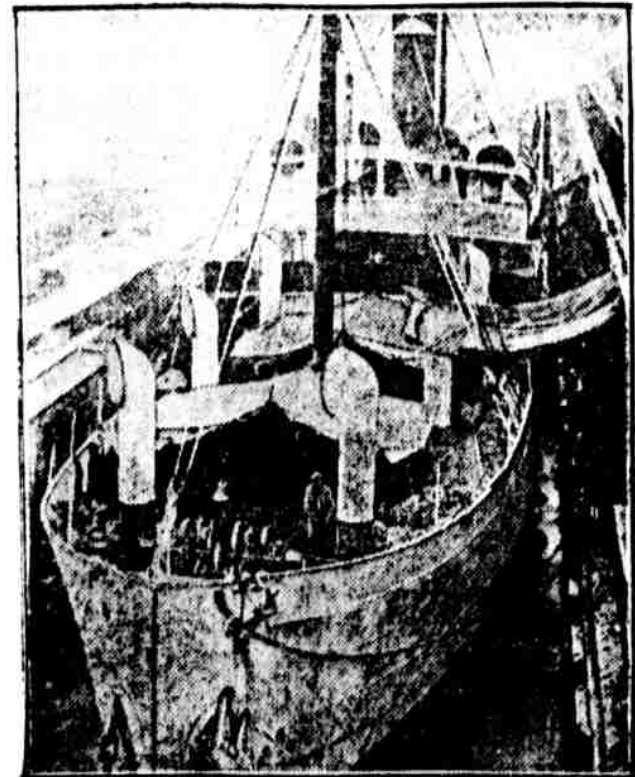

IT REALLY WORKS. Benjamin T. Bilen, 5621 Pine street, owns the smallest radio receiving set in Philadelphia.

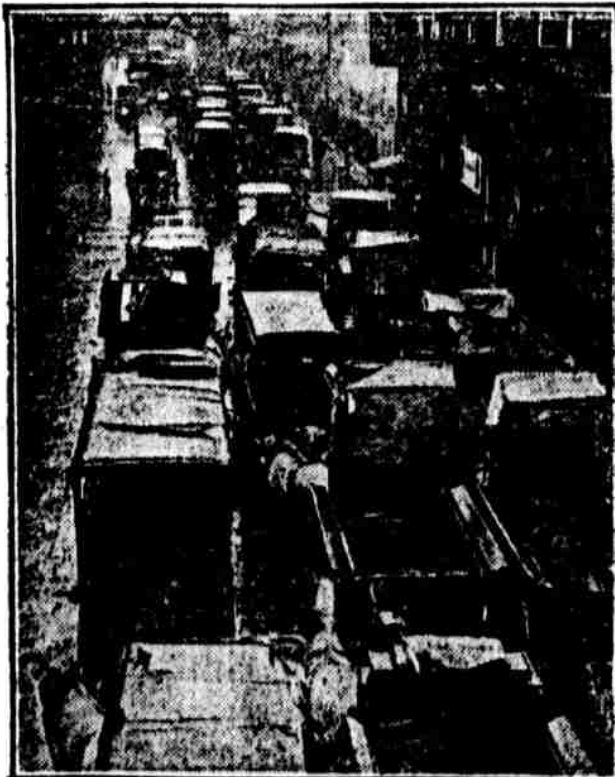

MISS ESTHER ROWLAND ready to play tennis at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

SHE'S A FENCER AND A JUMPER. Miss Adelaide Gehrig, an expert fencer, who does high jumping in wonderful form. She was snapped at Brighton Beach, N. Y.

PLENTY OF RAIN AND MANY BANANAS. The steamship Smargo arrived at the foot of Chestnut street early yesterday, loaded with thousands of bunches of bananas. Look at the long line of wagons waiting in the rain for their turn to go into the pier shed for a load.

AMBASSADORS MEET. Sir Auckland Geddes (left), British Ambassador to Washington, and Mrs. Geddes are met by Ambassador Harvey at Waterloo Station, in London.

E. A. SHERMAN, associate U. S. forester, will make extensive study in Alaska.